WINE LIST

UN PASTO SENZA VINO È COME UNA VITA SENZA AMORE

(A meal without wine is like life without love)

Welcome to Barolos Ristorante Italiano

The heart of Italian food and wine culture lies in its regionality. Each region in Italy produces a unique style of food and wine, characterised by the area's local ingredients and traditional methods. Each dish made in that region signifies a direct tie to a place and the people that live there.

It is important to us to honor this culture of regionality in our cooking, and in our wine selections. As such, we have deliberately constructed a wine list of mostly Italian wine, from the same regions that have inspired the food on our menu.

Some names on the wine list will appear familiar; some will be varieties that you may not have heard before. We encourage you to explore our wines and feel free to ask our well-informed staff to help you create an exciting, authentic Italian dining experience.

VINI BIANCHI WHITE TEXTURAL & FULL BODIED

Arneis and Cortese are both varieties that are fantastic to enjoy with food. Arneis is medium-bodied with melon and lemon flavours and perfect to pair with chicken and pork. Cortese is straw-coloured with bitter almond and citrus notes and is a great match with seafood.

VINI ROSSI (RED) SAVOURY & SPICE

This is Italian wine at its very best. No else can wrap up spicy aromas, blockbuster fruit and long tannins like the reds from Tuscany & Piedmont. The Sangiovese variety that is used to create Chianti is the obvious choice to pair with meat and game. Think of Nebbiolo as Pinot Noir on steroids and Barbera is a medium bodied, spicy red from the northern region of Piedmont.

WINE FOCUS BAROLO

Piedmont is home to Barolo, one of the world's great wines wine made from the Nebbiolo grape. This highly sought after wine is made in 11 small communes (villages) around the Langhe hills in the centre of Piedmont, Italy.

Piedmont is located in the top northwestern corner of Italy at the foot of the Italian Alps. The region is a mecca for food and wine, the slow food movement was born here and the local people are fiercely passionate about their locally produced food and wine.

Drinking Barolo is one of the most ethereal and powerful experiences in wine. These wines blend delicate aromatics of rose, truffle & earth with powerful tannins and structure. Quite simply, they have to be experienced to be believed!

Below are a few of our favourites listed by the commune where they are from;
